There is also an informational packet available that they are encouraged to read that breaks down the day before they register: <http://www.health.ri.gov/news/temp/2018Dare2DreamConferenceInformationPacket.pdf>
The email for the two contacts are: Deb Golding (deb.golding@health.ri.gov) or Kathy Kuiper (Kathleen.Kuiper@health.ri.gov).

Thursday May 24

Discrimination and Mental Health Parity -- A Workshop for Healthcare Providers, Office Staff, and Patients

Co-Hosts: Mental Health Association of RI and the RI Parent Information Network
Time: 9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

Location: RI Parent Information Network, 1210 Pontiac Avenue, Cranston

Lack of mental health parity in insurance coverage is a form of discrimination that people with mental health and substance use disorders continue to experience. But, parity is the law. Insurance companies are required to provide mental health and substance use disorder benefits at the same level as physical health benefits. Health care providers have an important role in helping to ensure their patients get the treatment they need. This workshop will inform attendees about existing parity law and will include tips and tools to help them advocate with insurers to get the mental health care benefits their patients need and that are comparable to their physical health care benefits. Facilitators will be Sam Salganik, Attorney, RI Parent Information Network and Ruth Feder, Executive Director, Mental Health Association of RI. REGISTRATION REQUIRED. Seating is limited. To register, visit <http://bit.ly/ParityWorkshop> or call 401 726 2285
